

Scroll down to see all open internships and their descriptions; Content and Communications, Research and Development, Bicycle Mayor Network, Global Networks, and Strategy and Impact.

Content & Communications Intern (Amsterdam, Netherlands / Currently Remote)

We are looking for an enthusiastic Content & Communications Intern to join our Amsterdam team for a full time position during 3-6 months (with stipend). Within this role, you will support BYCS in managing our social media channels and in developing content for various platforms. You will gain a holistic understanding of the barriers and opportunities in achieving cycling-centric cities and learn from the work of leaders, advocates and activists from around the world.

Responsibilities:

- Posting and monitoring on various social media platforms such as Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn to grow our digital presence
- Monitoring of Bicycle Mayor Network activities & initiatives
- Research, outreach, transcription and editing for monthly interview series & other written content
- Producing our monthly newsletter and supporting our internal network communication
- Supporting in various digital events

Requirements:

- Excellent command of English (writing and editing skills). Dutch and/or Spanish are a plus.
- Excellent knowledge of social media platforms
- Ability to work independently and multitask
- Passion for human-centric cities & active transportation with a good understanding of the latest urban trends
- Education: degree in Communications, Urban Planning, Urban Geography, International Relations or a related field.
- Prior experience in editorial, marketing or social media is a strong plus

If you are interested and believe you qualify for the position, please submit your information, including a CV, letter of motivation, and writing sample by filling out this form. Deadline to apply is January 19th, 2021.

Bicycle Mayor Network Intern (Amsterdam, Netherlands / Currently Remote)

We are looking for an intern for the Bicycle Mayor Network team, who is ambitious and eager to take initiative for a full time position during 3-6 months (with stipend). The chosen candidate will be responsible for building and strengthening a network of cycling changemakers. You will be working with a young team who are passionate about sustainable urban development. This position also provides a unique opportunity to get insight into the inner workings of a social enterprise.

Responsibilities

- Produce engaging digital content for international audiences
- Prospect new members for a global network of changemakers
- Assist with social media monitoring
- Co-organize and execute virtual events
- Perform research and market analysis
- Ensure that systems and processes are up-to-date and accurate
- Assist in administrative tasks

Requirements

- Passion for cities and active transportation
- Proficient in English, Proficient or Highly Knowledgeable in Spanish
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills; short and long copy
- Must be proficient in basic design programs including Adobe Creative Suite
- Skill in data analysis and problem solving
- Ability to work independently and complete assigned tasks within identified time frames
- Educational background: Urban Geography, Anthropology, International Development or related field

If you are interested and believe you qualify for the position, please submit your information, including a CV and letter of motivation, by filling out this form. Deadline to apply is January 19th, 2021.

Research and Development Intern (Bangalore, India / Currently Remote)

We are looking for a Research and Development Intern, who is ambitious and eager to take initiative for a full time position during 3-6 months (with stipend). The chosen candidate will be responsible for building and strengthening a network of cycling changemakers. You will be working alongside urban-planning experts and highly qualified entrepreneurs in this process. This position also provides a unique opportunity to get insight into the inner workings of a young foundation.

Responsibilities

- Produce engaging digital content for national and international audiences
- Prospect and successfully onboard new members for the national network
- Grow the company's social media presence
- Organize and execute digital events
- Perform research and market analysis
- Report on company's quarterly impact
- Assist in administrative tasks

Requirements

- Passion for the environment, health or social wellbeing & active transportation
- Proficiency in English
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills; short and long copy
- Must be proficient in basic design programs including Adobe Creative Suite
- Skill in data analysis and problem solving
- Ability to work independently and complete assigned tasks within identified time frames

If you are interested and believe you qualify for the position, please submit your information, including a CV and letter of motivation, by filling out this form. Deadline to apply is January 19th, 2021.

Global Networks Intern (Amsterdam, Netherlands / Currently Remote)

We are looking for an intern for the Bicycle Mayor Network team, who is ambitious and eager to take initiative for a full- or part-time position over a 3-6 month period (with stipend). The chosen candidate will be responsible for supporting and coordinating with a network of global changemakers. You will be working with a young team who are passionate about sustainable urban development. This position also provides a unique opportunity to get insight into the inner workings of a social enterprise.

This internship focuses around the importance of resource sharing and development at a global scale to help solve common challenges. How does a global network of bicycle changemakers share, access, and collaborate on resources that harness and build upon the knowledge, skills, and experience of the individual members?

Responsibilities

- Assessing the needs of global changemakers
- Creating, promoting, and institutionalizing of a resource hub
- Activating global changemakers to utilize and contribute to the hub
- Facilitating collaborations between changemakers to develop in-demand resources
- Project monitoring and evaluation against goals and metrics
- Reporting and presenting on project (at mid-point and end-of-project)

Requirements

- Passion for global challenges, sustainability, cities and active transportation
- Proficient in English, Proficient or Highly Knowledgeable in Spanish
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Comfort in conducting an interview and leading a meeting
- Ability to write in a logical, organized, and cogent manner
- Ability to work independently and complete assigned tasks within identified time frames
- Educational background: Urban Geography, Anthropology, International Development or related field

If you are interested and believe you qualify for the position, please submit your information, including a CV and letter of motivation, by filling out this form. Deadline to apply is January 19th, 2021.

Strategy and Impact Intern (Amsterdam, Netherlands / Currently Remote)

We are looking for an intern who is ambitious and eager to take initiative for a full- or part-time position over a 3-6 month period (with stipend). The chosen candidate will be responsible for supporting and coordinating a number of projects in Europe. You will be working with a young team who are passionate about sustainable urban development. This position also provides a unique opportunity to get insight into the inner workings of a social enterprise.

This internship focuses around the idea of impact - what broader effects does our work have beyond the initial activities and target audience. This topic brings together both data collection and analysis as well as storytelling in order to capture the impact of a given project.

Responsibilities

- Working with project leaders to develop impact plans
- Developing impact measurement tools
- Developing impact planning, measuring, and reporting tools and resources for team members
- Analyzing impact data - qualitative and quantitative
- Reporting on the impact of projects

Requirements

- Passion for global challenges, sustainability, cities and active transportation
- Proficient in English and Dutch
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Comfort in conducting an interview and leading a meeting
- Ability to write in a logical, organized, and cogent manner
- Ability to work independently and complete assigned tasks within identified time frames
- Educational background: Urban Geography, Anthropology, International Development or related field

If you are interested and believe you qualify for the position, please submit your information, including a CV and letter of motivation, by filling out this form. Deadline to apply is January 19th, 2021.